Age: 40

Occupation: Professor

Location: Coffee shop

Preferred type of holiday: Adventure Hiking

How often do you travel: Bi - Annually

Sample Questions and Responses

Topic 1: Planning & Scheduling

- Interviewer: “What aspects of planning a group holiday do you find most stressful?”
- Interviewee: “Honestly, getting everyone to agree on dates. Someone’s always busy, so we end up compromising on a time that’s ‘okay’ for everyone.”

Topic 5: Conflict Resolution

- Interviewer: “What happens when disagreements arise during a holiday?”
- Interviewee: “Usually, we let it slide. We try not to take things too seriously, so things don’t escalate.”

Sample Questions and Responses

Topic 2: Communication

- Interviewer: “How do you usually keep everyone in the group updated on plans and changes?”
- Interviewee: “We use a shared calendar, but not everyone remembers to check it. Group chats also work, but they’re chaotic sometimes.”

Topic 4: Expectations & Preferences

- Interviewer: “How do you balance everyone’s preferences during a group holiday?”
- Interviewee: “It’s hard. We often plan for free time where people can choose their own activities.”

Interview #6

Screening Questions

Name: David

Age: 39

Occupation: Doctor

Location: Hospital cafeteria

Preferred type of holiday: Adventure Holiday

How often do you travel: Annually

Sample Questions and Responses

Topic 1: Planning & Scheduling

- Interviewer: “Tell me about your last experience planning a holiday with friends. What went smoothly, and what challenges did you face?”
- Interviewee: “It’s always tough to align schedules because of my shifts and everyone else’s work commitments. Once we locked a date, though, deciding on the itinerary was quite fun—everyone chipped in with suggestions.”

Topic 3: Accommodation & Travel Arrangements

- Interviewer: “How do you decide on accommodations when traveling with friends? What factors play a role in choosing where to stay?”
- Interviewee: “We usually look for places near activities we’re interested in, like hiking trails or water sports. Comfort matters, but we’re willing to compromise if the location is great.”

Topic 5: Conflict Resolution

- Interviewer: “What happens when disagreements arise during a holiday? Can you share an example of how you resolved a conflict?”
- Interviewee: “There was a heated debate about how much time to spend relaxing versus exploring on our last trip. We eventually decided to split into smaller groups for part of the day, which worked out perfectly.”
